Ode To Death

If death shall be an endless sleep where all pressures, dreams shall cease, one would never have a need to weep lying in eternal peace.

If death should bring one to the place where spirit world doth reside, let us welcome then that saving grace with these spirits then abide.

In death I see no cause for fear when it comes as sweet relief, instead, I see a cause for cheer freed from trials and freed from grief.
